Only the best kids fashion in the world by one who knows

Beautiful fabrics from LEOCA Paris for couture quality children's fashion for winter 2011

March 4, 2011

LEOCA Paris presents its collections for the first time for winter 2011 for kids fashion with a devotion to fine fabrics and finish that is of couture quality.

A partnership between Maud Falcon de Longevialle who is the Artistic Director and whose background includes both work for movies and fashion where she was the stylist for the well known French brand Oona l'Ourse and her finance director Alice Teulieres.

The label has elegant tweed coats with fur collars, wool dresses and great tartan and printed textured fabrics with contrast cuffed details.
